Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is a photo of a naked female whose age cannot be determined with any certainty; while she may be a young person she might just as easily be a young adult. The image has no sexual content and no evidence of a sexual purpose, and therefore cannot reasonably be regarded as sexual in nature. The image raises no issues under s3(1), s3A or s3B of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The publication must, therefore, be classified as unrestricted. This classification is consistent with the right to freedom of expression as set out in s14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
